

Absorber (n.)	A thing that takes in or sucks up liquids or gases, like a sponge.
Adage (n.)	A saying or a proverb.
Aquaculture (n.)	The growing of water animals or plants in a controlled environment, underwater farming.
Deplete (v.)	Use up the supply.
Devastate (v.)	To destroy or ruin.
Dispel (v.)	To cause to vanish, alleviate.
Efficient (adj.)	Using with the least waste of resources or effort.
Expands (v.)	To increase in size, extent, scope etc.
Forage (n.)	Food.
Multitudes (n.)	A great number.
Numerous (adj.)	Very many.
Resilient (adj.)	Recovering from illness or damage.
Restoration (n.)	A return of something or someplace to its original condition.
Retention (n.)	The ability to keep in place.
Sedimentation (n.)	The matter or dirt that settles to the bottom of a liquid.
Swaths (n.)	A line or ridge of grass.